

What is the best-selling year of Rock music in the United States?

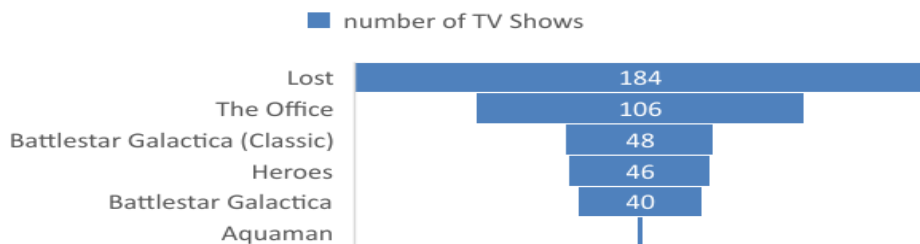

Revenues were recorded from year 2009 to year 2013.

2009 sales were good and then began to decline in the following year and then tried to recover until they exceeded the first year in 2013.

2013 was the largest annual revenue for rock music in the United States.

Who is the artist with the most tracks in the TV Shows playlist?

Artist with the most tracks in the TV Shows playlist?

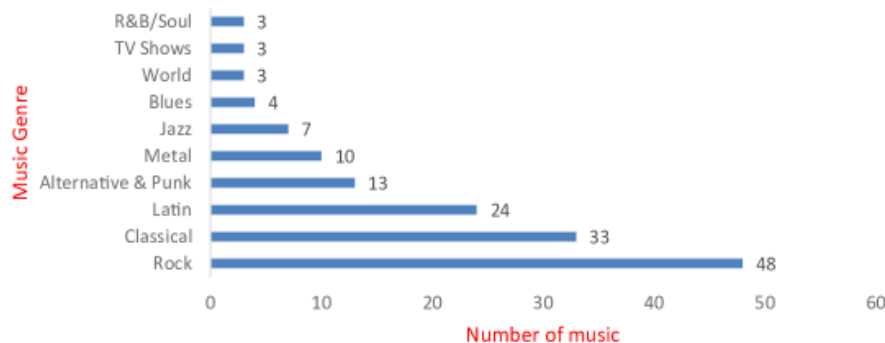

Lost Artist ranked first in the number of music he performed and used in TV shows.

there is a big difference between him and other artists, his music total is almost equal to the sum of the three artists in the following positions.

What kind of music do the top ten highest-earning artists perform?

kind of music do the top ten highest-earning artists perform

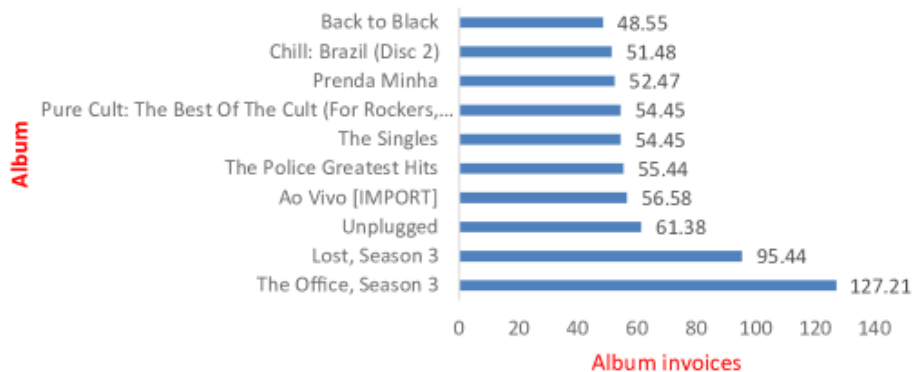

Rock music is most popular music that artists preferred to play.

Classical and Latin music got a good percentage while the rest of the genres were close and small.

What is the most popular album in the country have the most Invoices?

most popular album in the USA

It turned out that the USA is the country have the most invoices.

Album (The Office,Season 3) got the highest percentage, followed by album (Lost, Season 3).

The rest of the albums got an acceptable and very close percentage.